VALLEY SPORTS ON THE MOVE WITH DIRCKS

Do you ever wonder how the Sun Devils get their equipment from game to game? How the Arizona Cardinals move from the Tempe Training Facility to State Farm Stadium? How local sports icons are able to move properties with ease? Well, Dircks Moving & Logistics is the answer. Dircks has been a part of the valley sports for over 30 years. From the beginning roots of Rick and Chip being ushers at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum, to Dircks preparing the Arizona Cardinals for another playoff push season.

Most recently, Dircks moved the Arizona Coyotes staff and equipment from the Gila River Arena to Arizona State University's new multi-purpose arena in Tempe and their training facility in Scottsdale. The month-long move was quite complex and the Dircks team worked extremely hard to accommodate the intricacies of moving and entire NHL team into their new facility. The Coyotes were so appreciative of the work that the Dircks team did that Patrick Murphy, the Chief of Staff of Hockey and Facilities Operations at the Arizona Coyotes Hockey Club, presented the move supervisors, Damean Caltibiano and Leonard Evans, with a Shane Doan Signed jersey.

The attention to detail, work ethic and customer service is the reason why the Cardinals, Diamondbacks, Sun Devils, Suns, Coyotes, Mercury and Rising all trust Dircks with their organization's needs.

Dircks looks forward to continued support of the valleys sports for many seasons to come.

RICK DIRCKS FEATURED IN ASU ALUMNI SALES BROCHURE

When the ASU Alumni Association created a new brochure that describes all of the benefits of the Alumni Association to distribute to the public, they prominently featured our own Rick Dircks in it.

They had a section that highlighted Rick's contributions to the ASU Alumni Association. Rick has served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association and National Alumni Council, been a 5 time honoree as Sun Devil 100 (for being a top Sun Devil owned business), has been a 32 year sponsor of ASU Athletics and has been a 25 year member of the ASU President's Club. He also has a house full of 4 Sun Devil graduates!

Rick was quoted in the brochure with "Our ASU traditions are shared experiences enjoyed by generations of Sun Devils. When we participate in traditions, we form bonds with fellow Sun Devils, create deeper connections to our university and become a force that reflects all that ASU stands for. We are Sun Devils for life."

JOSH PROCTOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Josh's role at Dircks is Vice President of Operations. Josh enjoys the fast-paced atmosphere of the Moving & Storage business. He creates solutions for customers' needs and the culture of "Solving for Yes" that Chip and Rick have cultivated.

Originally from Van Nuys, California, Josh's family relocated to Peoria, Arizona at the beginning of high school. He considers himself to be an Arizonan. Throughout his professional career he has lived in California and Spokane, Washington but always ended back in Arizona.

Josh has 3 daughters currently ages 18, 15 and 13. Josh spends his time supporting his daughters in competitive soccer and dirt bike racing. He enjoys camping and off-roading as a family. In what little free time there is left, he can be found in his garage workshop building furniture and doing home improvements.

NATIONAL VAN OPERATOR APPRECIATION WEEK

Nearly every aspect of daily life is made possible because a van operator delivered goods and resources people need. Every day our van operators positively impact our company, the economy and customers.

September 11th was the beginning of National Van Operator Appreciation week. We thank all of our van operators for their commitment, hard work and safety, through rain or shine. Dircks showed appreciation to its van operators by gifting them everyday day of the week. For 32 years, Dircks has always used the best van operators in the industry, making sure our customers receive the best quality service. Thank you, van operators.

DIRCKS NAMED 18TH LARGEST FAMILY OWNED BUSINESS IN PHOENIX

In this years Phoenix Business Journal's Book of Lists, Dircks was named the 18th largest family owned business. With 225 employees, 3 divisions and 5 locations, Dircks continues to grow year after year.

Established in 1990, Rick and Chip bought assets from a local moving company. The first Dircks location was near the Phoenix Airport and started with about 30 employees.

"The Dircks Way" is to be an advocate and champion within the community and industry. Being a family owned business creates a family owned environment, making Dircks one of the best business to work for. Dircks' plan for the future is to continue to be one of Phoenix's largest family owned businesses to deliver quality service to the valley.

GOOD MOVES AND THE BAD

GOOD MOVE

As the Arizona Cardinals 2022-23 season begins, Dircks is first to the scene. From coaches desks, office supplies to football helmets and shoulder pads, Dircks moves it all. Our team of full-time, trained movers work efficiently to get the Cardinals up and running within hours. Trusting Dircks is a good move, Arizona Cardinals.

BAD MOVE

Sometimes shortcutting is not the best option. Do not try this at home and make a bad move. Next time they should call Dircks.
